

2017-2018 Librarians Competition

Guidelines

The following are the categories for entry this year:

1. Literature: Poems/Stories/Memes/Puns – Original and Non-Original
2. Arts: Crafts and other handmade projects for the month (includes pictures!)
3. Sciences: Poems/Stories/Memes/Puns – Original and Non- Original

Explanations:

Original entries are poems, stories, limericks, memes & puns written by the Daughter entering. All entries must be appropriate for the topic and appropriate for Job's Daughters of all ages. The entry must be shared at a Bethel meeting to be entered and signed by the Guardian Council member who approves your Librarian's reports.

Non-Original entries are poems, stories, limericks, memes & puns NOT written by the Daughter entering. Sources must be cited (if doing a meme or pun you can cite the website or person who posted it from the internet). The entry must be shared at a Bethel meeting to be entered and signed by the Guardian Council member who approves your Librarian's reports.

Categories and Examples are on the next page!

Who can enter? Any Daughter from a Bethel may enter and may enter all categories for each month.

How does judging work? All identifying information will be removed prior to the actual judging.

When are winners announced? Winners will be announced at each exemplification. Everyone who enters will receive a Certificate for participating and winners will receive a prize at each exemplification. At Grand Session, we will choose one winner for the month, and one overall winner!

How do I enter?! You must include the name of the Daughter, Bethel name and number along with a copy of the entry. All entries must be mailed or emailed to Martha (Peck) Andras or you can bring it to the exemplification!

Examples of puns/memes

Have you ever tried to eat a clock?

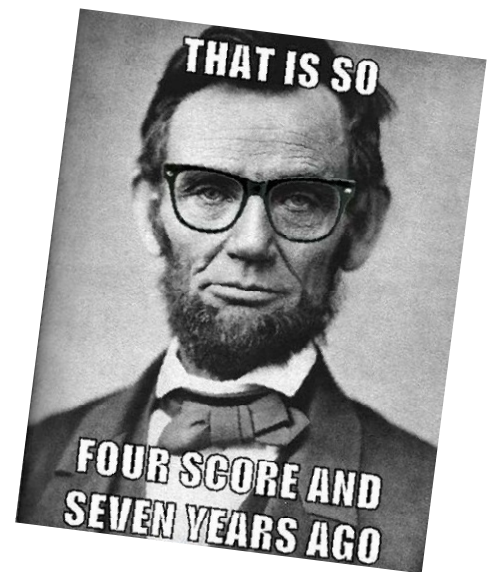

It's very time consuming.

I'm reading a book about anti-gravity.

It's impossible to put down.

A man just assaulted me with milk, cream and butter.

How dairy.

I relish the fact that you've mustard the strength to ketchup to me.

If towels could tell jokes they would probably have a dry sense of humor.
